

Can you find ...

a pilot?

a sniffer dog?

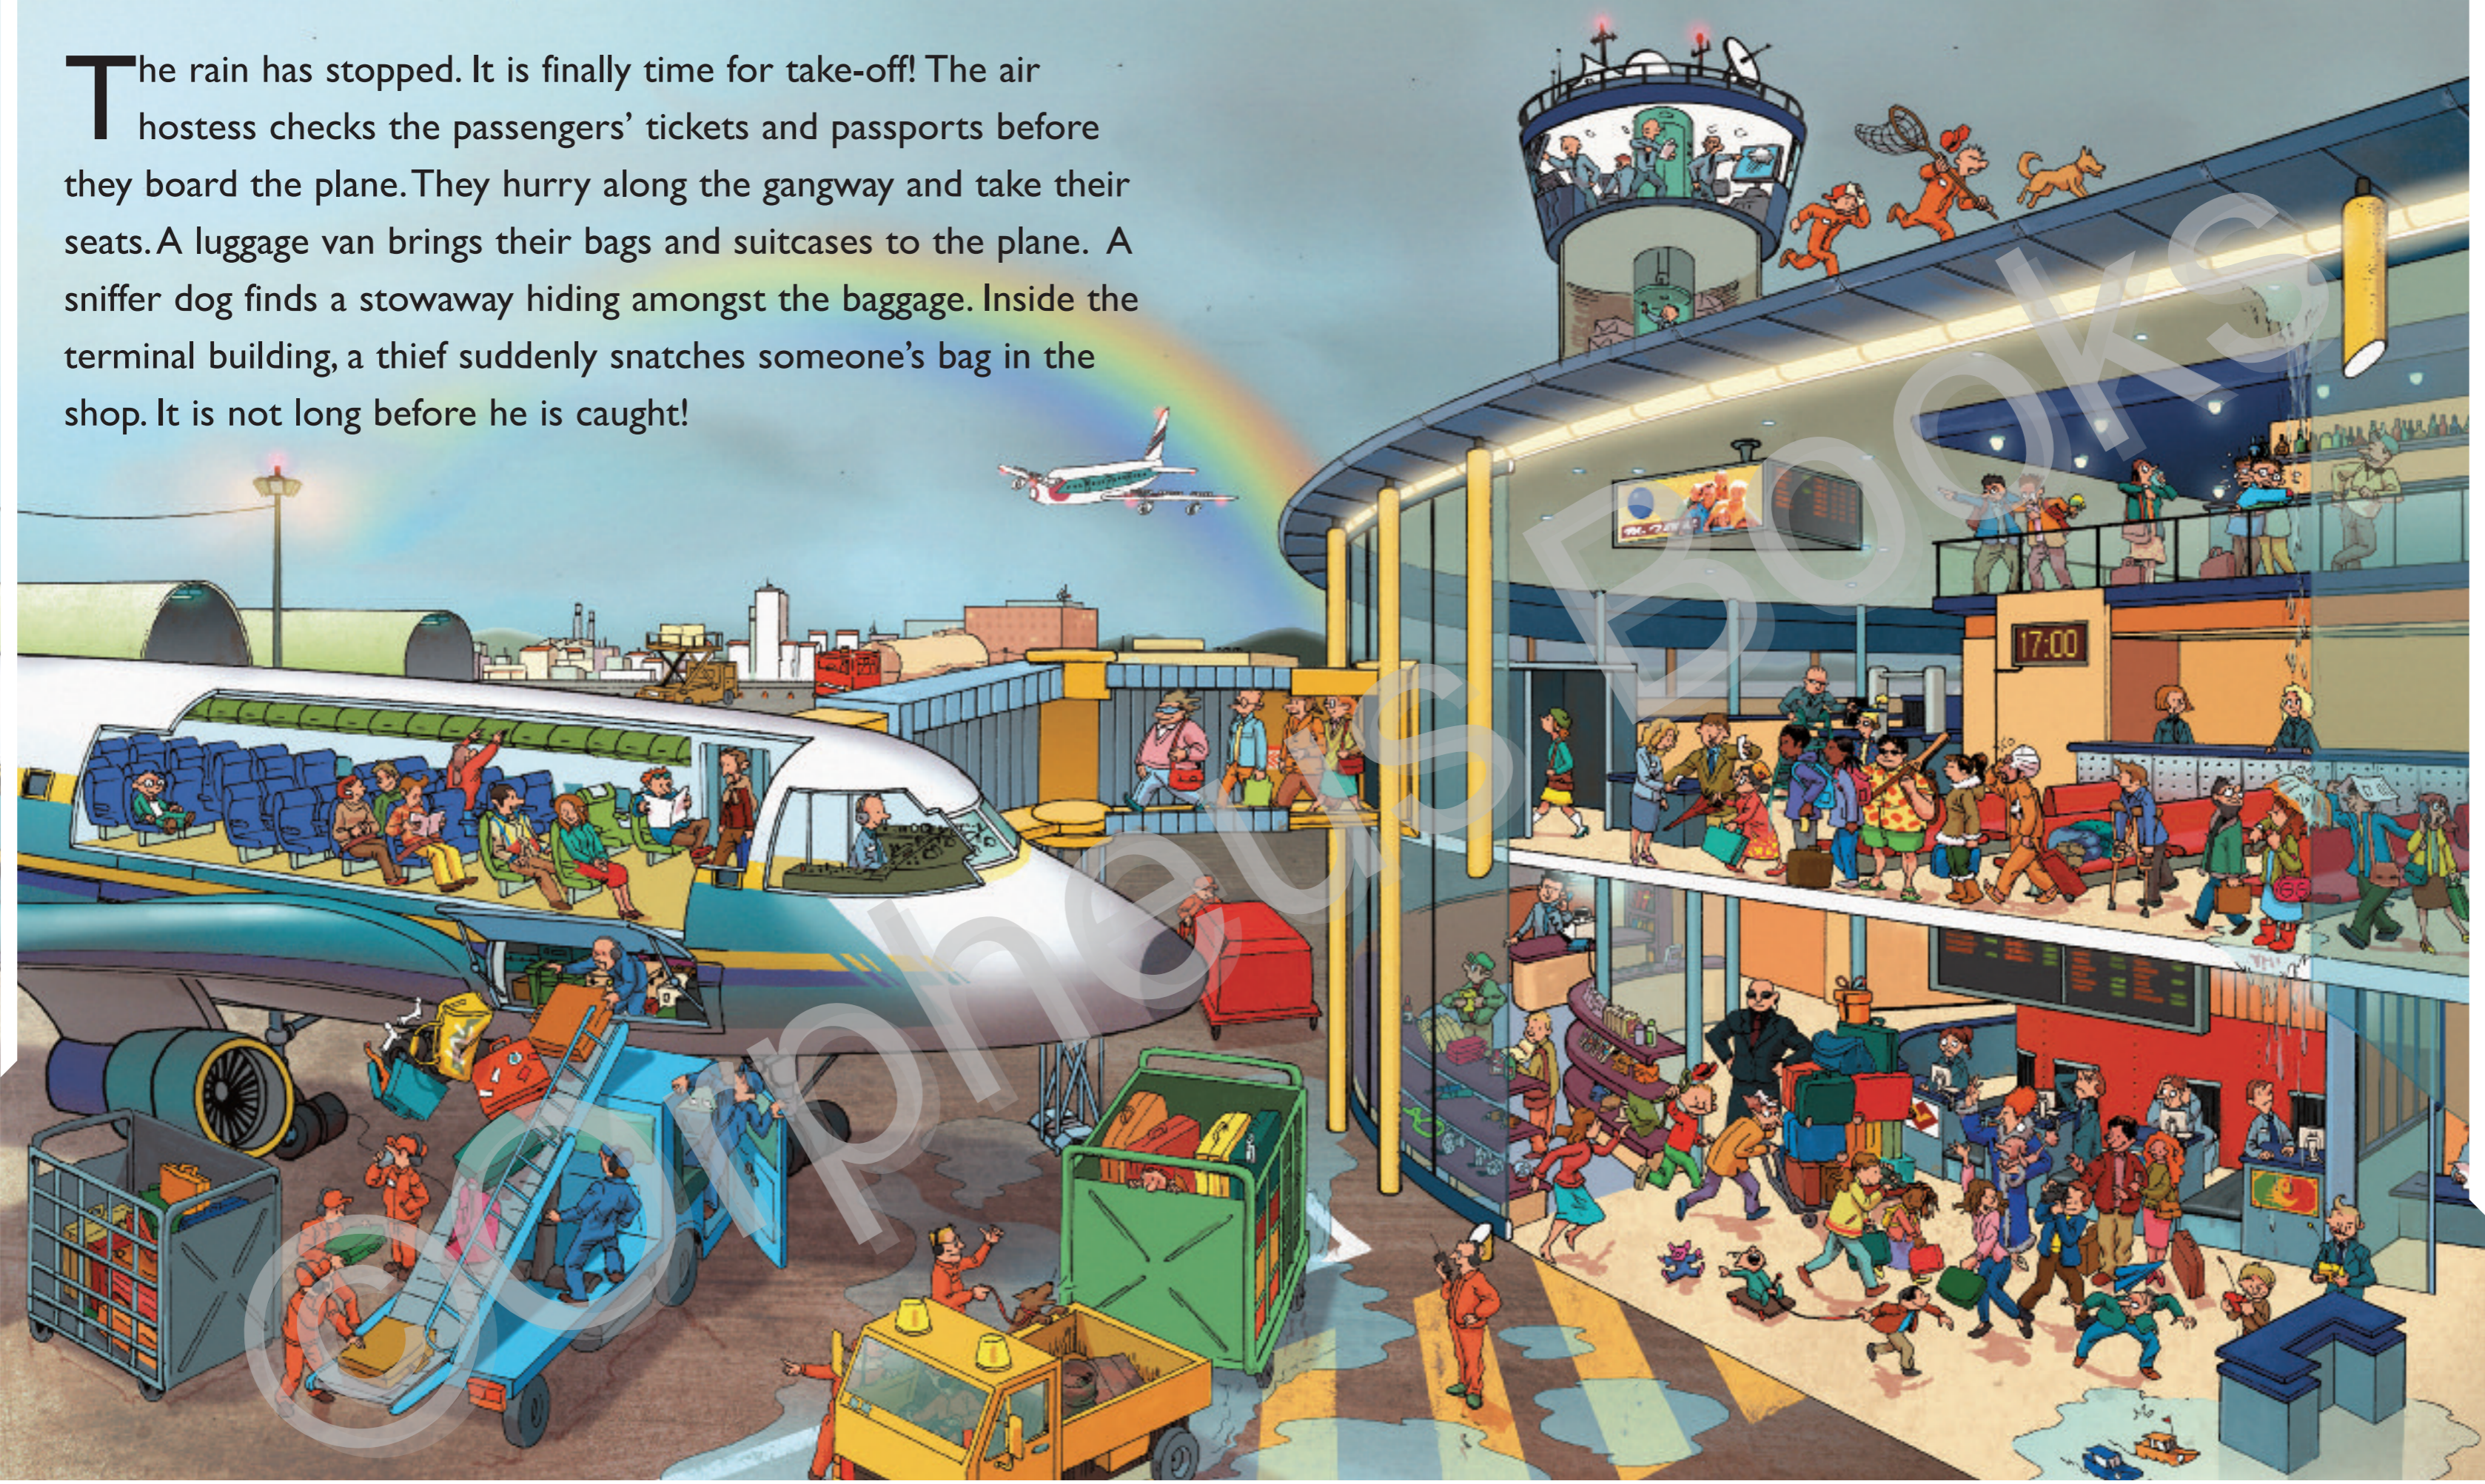

a luggage van?

some passengers?

The rain has stopped. It is finally time for take-off! The air hostess checks the passengers' tickets and passports before they board the plane. They hurry along the gangway and take their seats. A luggage van brings their bags and suitcases to the plane. A sniffer dog finds a stowaway hiding amongst the baggage. Inside the terminal building, a thief suddenly snatches someone's bag in the shop. It is not long before he is caught!
