

Can you find ...

a tortoise?

a panda?

a zoo keeper?

a dog?

It is feeding time. The zoo keepers give the penguins fresh fish to eat, while the pandas are fed bamboo shoots. The giraffes munch on green leaves. The gibbons cannot wait to eat their lunch! The visitors are hungry too. A long queue starts to build up at the hot-dog stand. Some people head for the refreshment stand to buy ice-creams instead. Others take a seat on one of the benches and eat their picnics.

Can you find ...

a meerkat?

an escaped gibbon?

a hot-dog stand?

One of the gibbons has escaped! The zoo keeper who fed them earlier must have left their cage door open. The mischievous gibbon dashes around the zoo, sending visitors and hot-dogs flying. The zoo keepers quickly grab nets and try to catch it. Meanwhile, the vet continues on his rounds. The giraffes and the pandas receive their weekly wash. Can you spot the naughty pickpocket stealing someone's wallet?
