

Whose SPOTS
are these?

I am a little beetle. You will often see me in your garden or in your home. Watch me crawl up your finger, then open my wings and fly. Can you guess who I am?

A ladybird!

My bright colours warn other animals that I taste bad, so they had better not eat me!

I like to feed on tiny garden pests called aphids.

